| <input type="checkbox"/> 232 pg, 10.95 KB              | ORDER (Clerk) In eight of these appeals, the appellants have jointly moved to consolidate the appeals. The appellees participating in those eight cases have all moved for an extension of time to respond to the consolidation motion. A ninth appeal (No. 20-3501) appears to raise similar issues but was not included in the consolidation motion. The Court will nevertheless sua sponte consider consolidating that appeal with the others. Although the consolidation motion appears to seek consolidation for the limited purposes of scheduling and disposition, that does not prevent the Court from consolidating for additional purposes (e.g. joint briefing) if appropriate. Any party who objects to consolidation must file a response within 14 days of this order. To that extent, the appellees' extension motions are granted. Similarly situated parties are strongly encouraged to file joint responses. The previously issued briefing schedule in No. 20-3124 is vacated, and therefore no action will be taken on those appellant's' extension motion. Briefing will not proceed in any of these appeals until the appropriate time after the consolidation motion has been decided. Because the Court strongly disfavors redundant briefing, similarly situated parties are encouraged to file joint briefs. Briefs addressing a single appeal are limited to 8,000 words and may not adopt by reference arguments appearing in another brief. Briefs addressing more than one appeal may contain 16,000 words. If a reply brief is filed, then Appellants who file a joint opening brief must file a joint reply brief. Reply briefs may contain half the amount of words allowed for opening briefs, 4,000 words when addressing only one appeal and 8,000 words when addressing multiple appeals. The word limitations established by this order are peremptory. Motions to exceed them will not be granted. The Clerk will simultaneously issue briefing schedules in these fourteen appeals once all required transcripts are filed. The Clerk is directed to identify other similar appeals involving insurance coverage for business-interruption losses caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. The Clerk will stay any such appeals until the above-captioned appeals have been resolved or until further order. Any party to a stayed appeal may move to lift the stay if there is good cause for that appeal to immediately proceed. Panel No.: BCO-057. Ambro, Authoring Judge. | 10/08/2021 | <input type="checkbox"/> 452 pg, 107.28 KB  | ORDER (Clerk) A briefing and scheduling order was issued in the above-docketed cases on September 14, 2021. The April 6, 2021 Court Order consolidating the above cases set out the word limitations for the parties' briefs. Pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 29(a)(5), "[e]xcept by the court's permission, an amicus brief may be no more than one-half the maximum length authorized by these rules for a party's principal brief. If the court grants a party permission to file a longer brief, that extension does not affect the length of an amicus brief." Therefore, in the event an amicus wishes to participate in these appeals, any amicus brief should not exceed 6,500 words, absent leave of the Court. See Fed. R. App. P. 29(a)(5); see also Fed. R. App. P. 32(a)(7)(B)(1) (principal brief is acceptable if it contains no more than 13,000 words). When filing briefs, the parties should include only the case number(s) the brief is addressing on the cover page for the brief. In addition, only those case number(s) should be selected when electronically filing via CM/ECF.
